Exhibitors are made up of companies, agencies, businesses, schools, clubs, or other groups of people who want to engage children with a hands-on science, technology, engineering, or mathematics (STEM) activity. The target age for the event is 4th through 8th grade, although children of all ages attend. All exhibits are to have engaging activities that promote STEM and must be reviewed and approved by the organizing committee. Keep in mind: (a) exhibitors are not allowed to sell anything; (b) solicitations of donations are not allowed; and (c) giveaways of candy or food items are not allowed.

Standard: 2 tables and 2 chairs provided. Free wifi available.
